We are off on another new journey to the state of New Hampshire. Our day begins with a memorable and relaxing 75-minute cruise on Lake Winnepesaukee, New Hampshire's largest lake. We will be cruising aboard the Winnepesaukee Belle, a replica 19th-century paddleboat. This 65-foot boat has two decks, an open-air upper deck and an enclosed lower deck salon with restrooms and a bar.

After our cruise, we will feast on a delicious lunch buffet at the Wolfeboro Inn which includes Caesar salad; two entrees, New England haddock topped with buttered cracker crumbs or prosciutto crusted chicken with cranberry sage sauce; sautéed broccolini with garlic butter, brown butter mashed potatoes with garden herbs and chef's choice of dessert. Coffee and tea will conclude our meal.

Our next stop will be at the Wright Museum of World War II. The museum is a non-profit educational institution dedicated to recognizing and honoring the contributions and enduring legacy of World War II-era Americans. We will have time to explore the museum on our own before departing for home.
