TRIP DETAILS

Come join us on another new tour for 2023! We are heading to West Springfield, MA, and the site of the "BIG E." Here will be the Old Deerfield Holiday Sampler Craft Fair featuring over 200 artists, crafters, and designers. There are concession stands and restrooms here. We arrive when the fair opens, and you will have two hours of non-stop shopping.

We pause for lunch at Storowtown Tavern located on the grounds of the "BIG E." Our lunch offers a choice of chicken francaise (boneless breast of chicken sauteed in a light lemon wine sauce) or baked scrod with herb crumb topping. All will include a garden salad, whipped potato, green beans almonidine, bread, coffee, and tea. Menu subject to change. Please make selection below.

Our final stop of the day will be the Majestic Theater for their 2:00 pm matinee performance of Moonglow. Set in Lowell, Massachusetts, in the 1960s, Moonglow is a romantic comedy that combines fresh dialogue, interesting characters, and a bit of good old Catholic guilt. Ray Healy is a middle-aged music teacher and Catholic School band director whose personal life is "a big question mark." When his secretary finally comes clean about her romantic aspirations for their relationship, secrets about Ray's past are revealed. This clever and warm play has some surprises up its sleeve. We depart for home after the show. This is a small, intimate theater, and we have tickets on the floor and the balcony. (Be advised there are twelve stairs to the balcony.) Both Gladys and I have seen this theater.
