TRIP DETAILS

We are off to the Ogunquit Playhouse. First stop of the day will be everyone's favorite store, When Pigs Fly bakery, for fresh baked breads followed by lunch at Jonathan's of Ogunquit.

We begin with a house salad and then choice of the following entrées: chicken piccata (boneless breast of chicken crumbed and sauteed with lemon, capers, butter, and wine) OR lemon-baked scrod with a lemon beurre blanc and seasonal crumbs. Both entrees will come with chefs' choice of vegetable and starch of the day. We conclude lunch with coffee or tea and chef's choice for dessert.

The most infamous rock and roll meeting of all time occurred when Elvis Presley met the Beatles. On August 27, 1965, John, Paul, George and Ringo, along with their manager, publicist, and assistants came to Presley's house on Perugia Way in Los Angeles to meet their rock and roll idol. The Beatles were the ones who pushed for the meeting. "Without Elvis, there would be no Beatles," Lennon famously remarked in later years. The clock struck 11 PM at Elvis Presley's Los Angeles mansion. Under the glow of red and blue lights, The Beatles stepped into a room that seemed to echo the future of music—a jukebox, a crescent couch, and a bar set the stage. Elvis stood at the center, ready for the convergence of two worlds. That night, rock 'n' roll royalty sealed its legacy.

A couple of things from the playhouse:

*Folks can be reseated on the day of the show if they are unable to see, provided the show is NOT SOLD OUT.

* We also have seat cushions available at the front of house staff's desk that is in the back right corner of the lobby. Folks can get those cushions from an usher once they are seated.

* Show time is 2:00 PM and runs for 2 1/2 hours with an intermission (run time subject to change). We depart for home after the show. Thanks for joining us.
