TRIP DETAILS

Come join us on another new tour, traveling first to Hampton Beach, NH, to see the master sand sculpting classic. For the past 25 years, master sculptors from everywhere have met at Hampton Beach to display their skills and creativity and participate in the largest Master Sand Sculpting competition in the Northeast. The chamber of commerce says this weekend is the best time to see the sculptures as they are being judged today.

Next up is our included soup, salad, and sandwich buffet at the Old Salt restaurant in nearby Hampton, NH. Our lunch starts with minestrone soup, followed by garden and potato salad, chicken salad, egg salad and tuna salad rolls, chips followed by cookies and brownies along with coffee, tea, or fountain sodas. (Menu subject to change.)

Our adventure continues with a short journey to Newburyport for a one hour narrated harbor cruise. We will be able to experience the sights and sounds of Newburyport Harbor, the great salt marsh, and the Merrimack River. You will learn what makes the salt marsh one of the most productive and biodiverse ecosystems on the planet. Common wildlife sightings on this trip include osprey, eagles, hawks, herons, egrets, diving cormorants, harbor seals and deer!

Please note: Half the group will board the boat on arrival while the other half will have time to poke through the stores. The people on the first cruise will then visit the stores in Newburyport while the other half of the group sails on the harbor cruise. We begin our trip home after everyone has enjoyed the cruise.
